

Scholarly Communications Workshops – Spring 2013

Copyright Essentials for the Graduate Researcher

This workshop will answer graduate and doctoral students' copyright questions they may encounter as they write and prepare to publish their own thesis or dissertation.

Library West, Room 211

Monday, January 14, 2:00 p.m. OR
Thursday, March 21, 11:00 a.m.

Marston Science Library, Room 308

Tuesday, January 15, 9:30 a.m. OR
Friday, March 22, 1:00 p.m.

Education Library, Room 1504

Wednesday, February 20, 3:00 p.m.

Copyright Essentials for the Faculty Author

Faculty authors will learn more about the copyright policies of publishers, how to read and understand publication agreements, and how to preserve their rights as authors.

Library West, Room 211

Monday, January 28, 1:00 p.m. OR
Tuesday, March 12, 9:30 a.m.

Marston Science Library, Room 308

Thursday, January 31, 9:30 a.m. OR
Wednesday, March 13, 2:00 p.m.

Education Library, Room 1504

Thursday, January 24, 9:35 a.m.

The Open Access Option: How to Create, Locate and Publish in Open Access Journals

Learn about how to locate high quality, peer-reviewed open access journals in your field and avoid vanity presses or predatory journals. Learn about what to consider before publishing your own open access journal and how the Open Journal System at UF can be utilized to publish your own journal.

Library West, Room 212

Monday, February 11, 11:30 a.m.

Marston Science Library, Room 107

Tuesday, February 12, 9:30 a.m.

Registration for all workshops:

http://apps.uflib.ufl.edu/Registration/public\_workshops\_all.aspx

For more information, contact Christine Fruin at christine.ross@ufl.edu or (352) 273-2710